

Accessing Léa Assignments on PC

This guide is written by the John Abbott's
Computer Science Students

1. Click the Léa Button on the Omnivox Homepage (located on the left hand side under the college logo)

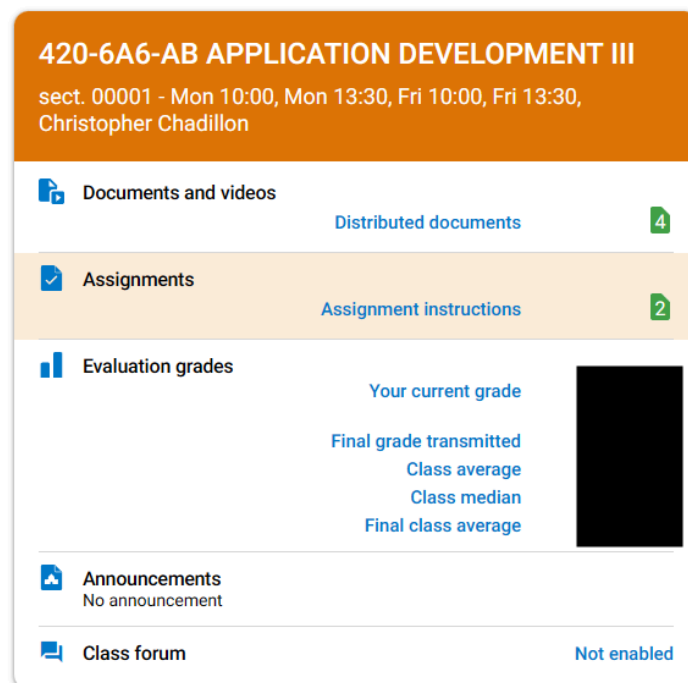

2. On the left hand side of the screen there will be a box labeled My classes.

3. In this box ensure Fall 2024 is selected in the drop down menu. Change this selection as applicable to your semester (fall/winter)

4. Once this is selected, you will see all your courses for your semester. From the desired course select the “Assignments” tab

5. A list of available assignments will be shown to you. Please note the submission deadline. Lea will confirm the submission of your assignment with a datetime and file name. The checkbox on the right indicates if the assignment was submitted on time in green, and in yellow if submitted late

7. If you've noticed you may have made a mistake, or if your professor asks you for a resubmission, or you have some other reason to update your work, that's okay! Provided you've let your professor know, the process of updating is the same as outlined above, with a slightly different description:

Resubmit

This assignment has already been submitted. If you wish to submit an additional file, please follow the steps below. If your assignment is made up of several files, you must first group these into one ZIP format file.

Once you resubmit, here's what the assignments should look like. Highlighted, in yellow, is your most recent submission to an assignment, followed by the one previous, and so on. On the right, I circled the corresponding assignment to show the checks will appear for every submission you add based on if they were on time for the assignment's deadline or not.

The screenshot shows the Omnivox Classroom interface for 'Exercise 1.2 - File-Based Model'. The left panel displays assignment information, including the submission deadline (Wednesday February 01 2023 at 17:30) and a list of submitted files. The right panel shows a table of all assignments with their submission status and deadlines.
